ACTIVITY FEES

In the Grammar School (K-6), activity fees cover field trips, special classroom events (e.g. 2nd grade Egyptian Feast), school-wide celebrations (e.g. Reformation Day), class auction projects, 4th grade recorders, 6th grade house shirts. In the Middle School (grades 7-8) and High School (grades 9-12) fees cover the Secondary Fall Retreat (transportation, food, and lodging), class literature novels and other curricular books (not textbooks), school-wide celebrations, auction projects, 10th grade house shirts, and High School Protocol. Activity fees do not include school supplies, class parties, athletics, or hot lunch.

OTHER FEES

Application Fee $100 per student (non-refundable)
A one-time fee payable with each new student application

Enrollment Fee $125 per student or $300 per family (non-refundable)
Payable upon acceptance or re-enrollment, this reserves your student's class placement

Withdrawal Fee If a student withdraws prior to May 1, there will be no liability other than the non-refundable fees. Students withdrawing on, or after, May 1 will be responsible for tuition on a pro-rated daily basis, with a withdrawal fee of 10% of the overall tuition commitment. Report cards, transcripts, and diplomas will be released after all financial obligations have been met.

PARENT PARTNERSHIP HOURS

Because Providence acts as an extension of the families, each Providence family is required to serve a minimum of 35 Parent Partnership Hours. In lieu of the required partnership hours, each family may opt to pay ($10 per hour). Parent Partnership Hours must be recorded via ParentsWeb or in the family folder.

FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid is determined by a third party (FACTS Management Company) and is available for those families who qualify. Families interested in applying for financial aid may submit their application online (no paper applications) at www.factstuitionaid.com no later than March 1, 2010. Financial aid applies only to tuition, exclusive of school fees.

TUITION PAID IN FULL

Families who pay their tuition in full by May 1 are entitled to a 2% discount off their total tuition.
