Welcome from the Headmaster

Whether it’s old signs, baseball cards, furniture, toys, even cereal boxes, I love all things vintage. Truthfully, our house would likely resemble a forlorn junk store without the necessary and mitigating oversight of my wife. Vintage anything connotes images of nostalgia, a stroll back to the way things used to be. Better? Not necessarily, but we all love to peer into the annals of time and reflect, ponder, and contemplate.

Vintage Veritas not only has an alliterative ring to it, but communicates something more meaningful. Veritas is a Latin word meaning “truth.” The pursuit of truth has been the fancy of poets, philosophers, and theologians. In John 18, where we read of the arrest of Jesus and His subsequent interrogation by the governor, Jesus boldly declares His purpose for coming into the world – to bear witness to the truth. Pilate asks, “What is truth?” While the text doesn’t indicate Pilate sought an answer from Jesus, he did then declare, “I find no guilt in this man.”

As we reflect on the truth of Scripture, the embodiment of truth is indeed found in a person: our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As a classical, Christian school, we seek to cultivate in our students timeless truths that transcend the social, political, and cultural boundaries of our age.

On behalf of our Board, faculty, staff, and students, thank you for your participation in our annual benefit auction. Your support is directed specifically toward need-based financial aid. We all benefit by ensuring that Providence is financially accessible to a wide group of families, and financial aid maximizes this effort.

Our fabulous auction team – Cory Marshall, Stacey Sykes, and Shannon Wilson, among others – have prepared a wonderful and entertaining evening. And we are excited again to welcome John Curley as our auctioneer. We appreciate all the folks who have contributed and made this evening possible.

With gratitude,

Ryan Evans, Headmaster

Explanation of Games & Special Programs
Bellevue Rare Coins “Heads or Tails” Cash Jackpot
Just before the Live Auction you will have the opportunity to participate in the Heads or Tails game. The prize will be a special Cash Jackpot Bid Card, with the monetary winnings preloaded on it. The winner will receive 50% of the amount paid into the game, up to $1,000, to bid with tonight! Just raise your bid card and go on a spending spree. Be sure to listen for details throughout the evening. The fun of playing is worth the $10 price, but the prize certainly sweetens the deal!

Here’s how you play—just give your bidder number to the secondary students walking around with the game clipboard or pay to play on your mobile device. During the game you will place your hands on your head or your tail. The emcee will flip a coin. If it is heads, all with their hands on their heads will remain standing, and vice versa. This continues until the last one is standing. The prize is valued at $1,000! The cost to play is $10. Please note, no cash will be paid out, this is for auction scrip to be spent tonight on Live Auction items.

Printing Plus “Wine Pull”
Try your hand at this traditional carnival style game. For $15 you will be given the opportunity to select a numbered bag and “pull” the wine from it. Whichever bottle you pull, you keep. The values range from $5-$75 and everyone wins! In order to open it tonight there is a corkage fee, so we ask that you please take your wine home and enjoy it another evening.

Emmanuel Church Sponsored “Fund-A-Student”
During the Live Auction the emcee will announce that it is time for the Fund-A-Student portion of the evening. This is your chance to help Providence raise money for tuition for students that otherwise may not be able to attend the school. Fund-A-Student bid increments will be $5,000, $2,500, $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, and $25. Thank you in advance for donating to our financial aid fund!

Lund Orthodontics Raffle Baskets
This is a new “game” for 2018! We have put together about a dozen unique and valuable themed baskets for this game. You can buy in for $10 per ticket, or $50 for 10. Then, place your tickets in the bins in front of the baskets you want to win and we’ll draw a winner before the end of the night. You must be present to win. Winners will be announced at the end of the Live Auction!

Silent Auction Mobile Bidding
All silent auction descriptions, with images, can be found using the Text2Bid mobile bidding platform. Bidding opens for these items on Monday, March 5th, and closes during the auction event on March 10th at approximately 7:20 pm.

Check-In
As you arrive, pick up your bid card as well as a list of additional items (if any) that have been added to the Live Auction. You will receive your table number as well. At this time, you can opt to register a credit card with “qcheck” for a faster check-out at the end of the night.

Day of the Auction
Silent Auction bidding has already opened online. There are bid assistants located around the Silent Auction room, as well as “leader boards” scrolling through the silent auction items listing the current winning bid/bidder. You may place your bid on your own mobile device or with any bid assistant. If you are outbid and would like to raise your bid, either rebid on your device or with an assistant. Bidding will continue until the items close at 7:20pm (after seating for dinner). When the auction closes, the highest bid is a legal contract to purchase the item. There are silent auction items for every budget!

Live Auction
The Live Auction bidding will begin at approximately 7:30pm. When bidding, please hold your number toward the auctioneer. The winning bid is a legal contract to purchase the item.

Warranties
Providence has attempted to catalog and describe the property correctly, but all property is sold “as is.” Providence neither warrants nor represents and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of the property. No statement contained in the catalog or made orally at the sale or elsewhere shall be deemed to be such a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability for tax purposes or for general value.
Items
Bid amounts will not be split by cashiering among multiple bidders, unless specifically stated otherwise. The Auction Committee reserves the right to add or withdraw, without notice, items to or from the auction. Travel packages, unless otherwise noted, do not include airfare. There will be no refunds made on any item in the case that a mutually agreeable time is not met.

Time Limit
Unless otherwise stated, all items need to be redeemed within one year following the auction at a time mutually agreeable to the buyer and donor.

Payments
All sales are final and there will be no exchanges or refunds unless specified. All items and experiences must be paid for in full at the end of the evening. We can accept checks, Mastercard, Visa, Discover, American Express, or cash. Providence is a charitable organization and your payments may be tax deductible as a charitable contribution only to the extent provided by law. Remember to have your company match the portion you pay over the value of the item.

End of the Evening Check-Out
Please find a Providence cashier in order to close out your bids and process your charges. You will be asked to verify your purchases, and a receipt will be given to you. Then, a bid assistant will pull your items and bag them. Please review the items in your bag and make sure everything is correct before you leave the building.

However, just before the Live Auction kicks off you will have the opportunity to decide, as a table, how much you are willing to spend on dessert. We have created a special Silent Auction section for the projects that have been custom created by the grammar classes. We want parents and grandparents all over the country to be able to bid on these amazing handiworks! Bidding on these items will take place at the same time as the other silent auctions, opening on Monday, March 5th and closing the night of the auction, March 10th.

The 3rd and 5th grade class projects are not found in this section because those classes chose to put together packages that will be sold in the Live Auction on the night of the event. To see the details of those “Class Projects” go to the Live Auction section of this catalog.
